I am creating a animation for one of my all time favorite animated series, the boondocks. The boondocks lasted on adult swim from November 6, 2005 to June 23, 2014. The show contains a mixture of real events, and humor. The story begins with Huey (10 year old) and his little brother Rylie(8 year old), move to a quiet suburb area called: Woodcrest. Their grandfather( named: grandad ) feels that they need to move to a better location moving them from west side Chicago to woodcrest ( which is mostly a white area ). The trio find themselves caught up in all sorts of mischief.

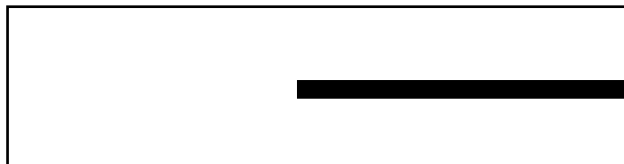

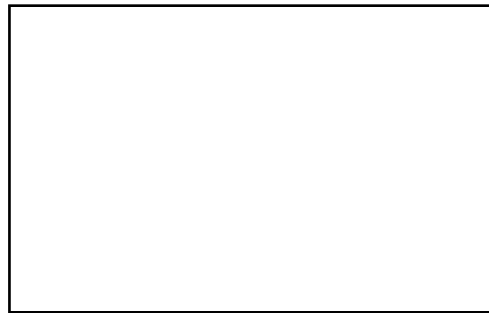

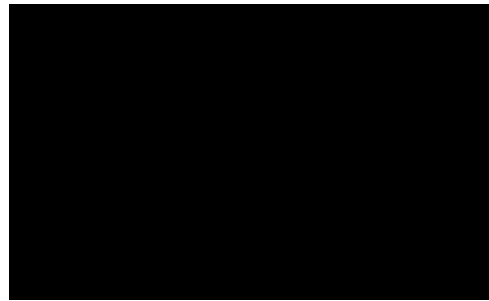

Using what I know about the show, I want to create a sequence of faces changing into each other as rylie comes about with a sword and slashes the screen ( since he loves martial arts/swordsman ) ( also the main character ). I have other elements, I may have Huey and Rylie fight each other, im not sure.
